Subject Area:	The celebration of Holi is to embrace the significance of colors as nature's smiles, symbolizing vitality in the spectrum of life
Objective of the event:	The objective of the celebration of Holi is to embrace the significance of colors as nature's smiles, symbolizing vitality in the spectrum of life. Holi serves as a vibrant festival fostering universal joy and enjoyment, transcending age, faith, and cultural boundaries. The aim is to create an inclusive and harmonious atmosphere, bringing together individuals from diverse backgrounds, communities, genders, and nationalities. This celebration emphasizes the power of Holi to unite people, promoting a sense of togetherness and shared happiness. Through student participation and the capture of joyful moments, the objective is to highlight the festival's role in promoting friendships and a sense of community among the SRM AP student body.

Outcome of the event:	The Holi celebration resulted in a vibrant and inclusive environment where students expressed happiness through the kaleidoscope of colors. The event successfully brought together individuals of various backgrounds, fostering a sense of unity and joy. Countless photographs captured the spirit of the celebration, showcasing the happiness and friendships formed during the event. Moreover, the colorful festival served as a medium for cultural exchange, breaking barriers and creating lasting memories. Overall, the Holi celebration not only added color to the lives of the students but also strengthened the sense of community at SRM University, embodying the festival's power to unite people through shared moments of joy and celebration.

Objective of the event:	The celebration of Holi at SRM University-AP aims to provide students with a joyful break from their academic routines, fostering a sense of unity and harmony among the campus community. The Photography Club's 'Holi Artistry' event focuses on encouraging students to showcase their creativity and photographic skills, capturing the colorful moments of the festival. By organizing these festivities and creative expressions, the university creates a vibrant and inclusive environment where students could collectively celebrate the cultural significance of Holi, fostering a spirit of joy on campus.

Outcome of the event:	The Holi celebration at SRM University-AP resulted in a festive and memorable experience, fostering a sense of unity and joy among students. The colorful and vibrant festivities provided a break from academic routines, promoting a positive and inclusive campus atmosphere. The Photography Club's 'Holi Artistry' event successfully captured the essence of the celebration through students' creative expressions, creating a visual documentation of the diverse and unique ways in which Holi was celebrated on campus. This initiative not only showcased the students' artistic talents but also contributed to the documentation of cultural events within the university.

Event Organizer Contact info:	Ms.Revathi.B (Assistant Director - Student Affairs)
Subject Area:	Creative Art for Ganesh Chaturthi
Objective of the event:	The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration focuses on creatively commemorating the festival by challenging club members to craft representations of Ganpati ji using unconventional materials. The event promotes innovation and artistic expression by encouraging members to overcome the challenges posed by diverse materials. Displaying the art pieces in an exhibition near the Grand Stairs aims to showcase the diversity of artistic styles and materials used. Additionally, the exhibition captures tradition with contemporary artistry.
Outcome of the event:	The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration by the Creative Arts Club resulted in diverse use of materials, ranging from ice cream sticks to fabric, showcasing the club members' ingenuity and artistic versatility. The art pieces reflected dedication and creativity. The exhibition near the Grand Stairs became a visual spectacle, drawing attention to the varied representations of Ganpati ji and showcasing different art styles. The positive reception from students and faculty effectively merged creativity with cultural celebration.

Resource Person / Chief Guest:	Mr. M Nageswara Rao, Chief editor of Eenadu
Objective of the event:	The Department of Student Affairs aimed to celebrate the significance of mother tongues by inviting Mr. M Nageswara Rao, Chief-Editor of Eenadu, to address students on International Matribhasha Diwas. The objectives were to foster an appreciation for the role of mother tongues in preserving cultural identity and creating a sense of connection with one's roots. By emphasizing the importance of the first language learned, the session sought to promote linguistic and cultural diversity. Additionally, the event aimed to provide students with a platform to enjoy and engage with traditional language information, enhancing their understanding and pride in their linguistic heritage.

Outcome of the event:	The outcome was a strengthened connection among students with their cultural roots, as the significance of mother tongues in preserving memories and identity was highlighted. By featuring Mr. Rao's address, students not only enjoyed the program but also gained valuable insights into the cultural and linguistic aspects of their heritage. The event fostered a sense of pride in the importance of one's first language, emphasizing its role beyond communication - as a guardian of culture. Ultimately, the initiative contributed to a richer understanding and appreciation of linguistic diversity among the student community.
